Wesleyan Today

Summary of an address by Dr. D. R. Anderson to the Executive Board of the Alumnae Association, October 7, 1933

The old college is showing surprising tenacity. We feel better. We have not solved our problems by any means but we have demonstrated our capacity to live in spite of them. Considering the terrible load that the college is carrying its ability to go on—especially to go on without lowering its flag one inch—is nothing short of a miracle. We go on, and go on cheerfully, and with a fine quality of work. With everything apparently against us, so far as material circumstances are concerned, we are here and here full of vim, hopefulness, and determination.

We were very much pleased that we opened this session with more freshmen than usual, and such fine freshmen they are! Everybody is commenting on their outstanding character. Also we have a number of transfers from other colleges, and good ones too. There is a larger percentage of old students returning. Let us keep from getting discouraged—the old college is very much alive. We have our same faculty who are doing good work and going about the job as if they had a million dollars apiece, and the morale of students and faculty both cannot be excelled.

I am highly pleased at what the alumnae are doing. The start you are making in securing an art collection is commendable. Let us keep that up, and also the collection of historical material, manuscripts, and books relating especially to the History of Georgia and the South. Your Historical Scholarship plans are well conceived. Let's push them, all clubs getting behind them. In addition, we need scholarship funds similar to those administered by Mrs. W. D. Anderson last summer—funds with which to help girls who want to come to Wesleyan, who we believe will make first class students and who cannot possibly come without assistance. We are not giving scholarships promiscuously from current funds. We need special funds for that purpose. I am grateful that you have voted that your Loyalty Fund this year will be for this purpose.

Further, we are convinced that the story Wesleyan should be more widely and more frequently told. We have many excellent qualities—modern fireproof building, trained and experienced teachers, a high degree of grace of conditions with the freshmen of youth, friendliness, morale that is unbeatable. I feel somewhat that every one misses much who is deprived of life at Wesleyan. I really don't you? I need a fund for promotion, to fund, to send us story out widely.

Meanwhile our Trustees are working on our so-called larger problems. Let's have courage that as they go forward with their plan. We at the college will stand that stand of excellence are maintained.

here. You, daughters of Wesleyan, on whom we rely very emphatically and constantly, will go forward joyfully in your work of spreading the Wesleyan gospel and opening the Wesleyan highroad to girls who need Wesleyan whom Wesleyan needs?

I thank you for the support which you have given me and for your unfailing personal kindness.

Always cordially,

D. R. Anderson.

From The Executive Board Meeting

The Executive Board of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association met in October at the college, Alleen (Poer) Hinton presiding, Among other interesting things discussed were:

THE HISTORICAL ESSAY CONTEST

As you learned in the Commencement magazine, Wesleyan is offering a scholarship, including full tuition and board, to the Georgia high school senior who writes the winning essay on one of a number of historical subjects suggested.

Annabel Horn, the vice-president in charge of this department of work, presented the most interesting plans for the contest, and attractive posters announcing the contest are being sent to every accredited high school in the state, with pamphlets giving the rules.

What Your Club Do

This scholarship is being given by the college, and no alumnae money is to go into it. But the college asks us to see that every high school girl in our home places knows of it, and is interested in it.

And also, we want every alumnae club to raise $25., $50., $100. for the girl who writes the best essay in her town or district but misses the state scholarship. If there is a girl in your town who needs and deserves a scholarship, interest her in Wesleyan, and interest your club in her. We want every local or district winner who misses the full scholarship to receive partial scholarships provided by the alumnae.

Kathleen (Holder) Griffin, vice-president in charge of clubs, will visit any club to explain the scholarship plan. She is appointing local and district scholarship chairmen to assist her.

SEND WHATEVER FUNDS YOUR CLUB CAN RAISE THIS YEAR TO WESLEYAN FOR SCHOLARSHIPS.

NEW YORK ARTIST GIVES PAINTING

One of the most delightful surprises that has come to Wesleyan recently was the gift from Mrs. Gladys Brannigan, well-known artist of New York, of one of her paintings, a handsome water-color, "On a Southern Plantation."

Mrs. Brannigan became interested in Wesleyan, through her friend, Helena (Ogden) Campbell alumna of Wesleyan and herself an artist of note.

It has been the dream of Mrs. Campbell (who painted the portrait of Dr. W. F. Quillian which hangs in the Faculty Room) to secure for her Alma Mater a collection of representative works of contemporary artists.

Gladys Brannigan is mentioned in Who's Who as a member of the Allied Artists of America, of the Southern Art League, the National Arts club of New York, New York Painters, New York Water Color club, North Shore Arts society, Arts Club of Washington. She formerly did pen and in commercial drawing for the Washington Star. She received a special award by the Arizona Art Exhibition 1925, honorable mention at the New Haven Paint and Clay Club Exhibition in 1928 and at the Greenwich Society of Artists in 1930. She has one picture in the American museum of Natural History, a lithograph recently purchased by the Congressional Library, and a painting presented to George Washington University this spring.

This painting which she is giving to Wesleyan was exhibited in Boston last winter. It was shown in the New York Water Color club and in the American Water Color society, and was sent to exhibitions over the country by the American Federation of Arts.

W. R. ROGERS, JR. SCHOLARSHIP

The Loyalty Fund this year will be used for Wesleyan Scholarships, and will be known as the W. R. Rogers, Jr. Scholarship Fund in memory of our beloved trustee, William Rokenbaugh Rogers, Jr., who died in May of this year.

Class Notes

Reunion Classes in 1934

1923, 1924, 1925, 1926
 1904, 1905, 1906, 1927
 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888

1862

Class Secretary: Mrs. J. O. A. Clark (Ella Anderson), 76 Arlington Place, Macon, Ga.

Ella (Anderson) Clark fell in September, breaking her hip. She was in the Middle Georgia Hospital for some time, but is now at home on Arlington Place, and her two daughters, Lella (A.B. '89) and Ruth ('97) are taking splendid care of her. She is as bright and cheerful as ever, wide-awake and interested in everything that goes on in the world.

Walton Bowen, granddaughter of Bessie (Reed) Napier, was honored by being selected "best all-round" student at Miller High School in Macon. She is the niece of Gladys (Napier) Corbin, A.B. '11, with whom she has made her home for years. This year Walton is a freshman at Duke University, and is president of her class, but her grandmother says that she is planning to graduate at Wesleyan, where she will be the fourth generation of her family to come to Wesleyan.

1867

A charming picture of Martha (Drake) Weaver's great granddaughter, Martha Drake Reeves, appeared in the Macon Telegraph in April. The baby is the fourth "Martha Drake." Her great grandmother lives in Thomaston, and she has relatives all over the state, among them Martha Drake (Weaver) Sutton, A.B. '04, of Atlanta.

Mollie (Reid) Mills of Griffin wrote in May of her regret that she could not be present at Commencement, at which time her class was invited as special guests of the college. "I am one of the oldest graduates living, and I would enjoy being with you. My interest in the dear old college is still fresh in my mind." She was at Wesleyan for the inauguration of Dr. Dice R. Anderson as president two years ago, and was in the alumnae procession honoring him.

1869

Anna (Wynn) Adams of Savannah wrote in May of her regret that her health "made it necessary to deny herself the pleasure and privilege of being present for Commencement, especially since this was her reunion year."

1870

"Miss Mollie" Mason was honored by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Macon in December at a dinner given at Baconsfield clubhouse. As she sat smiling at the head of the tables in her black gown with her high collar with a corsage of red roses to set off her white hair, she was toasted by speakers as an exponent of "accuracy, thoroughness and truth," a teacher of beauty, and a character builder.

1873

Class Secretary: Mrs. Thomas Peters (Kate Ross), 358 Parkway Dr., Atlanta, Ga. My dear Alumnae Secretary:

In reply to your card asking for "class items" I would say: Had I an artist's pen I would "draw on my imagination" and send you such a budget that the doings of class

'73 would eclipse all others. I sent out quite a number of requests, but in reply received the crushing blow—"no news." Like myself, they must be all "homebound" from some reason or other. Here is a summary of my replies:

Carrie (Turner) Wilson of Sparta wrote of the death of Susie (Wiggins) Winter and Willie (Middlebrooks) Coleman.

Sallie (Barker) Hill of Clarkesville knew nothing of the living and writes that she has no long distance connection with those in the heavenly kingdom.

Ida (Frazer) Turrentine wrote of refreshing her memory by reading the newspaper account of our class graduation, and was so puffed up over complimentary allusions to herself that her head was completely turned and she has not regained her equilibrium.

Sallie (Jones) Sharpe, to my utter surprise and delight, came around in person. She is living in Atlanta and assures me that we will see each other often which gave me much pleasure.

Clara (Wells) Hoge is also living in Atlanta. I see her quite often. She is quite taken up with her church duties. Loula (Dozier) Lowndes and Nellie (Verstille) Glenn are also living in Atlanta.

Kate (Ross) Peters is so crippled up with "old folks' malady," rheumatism, that she has been forced to give up the pleasure of news gathering. And thus ends my recital of class doings.

—Kate (Ross) Peters, Class Secretary

Editor's query: How much news would Mrs. Peters find if she were unhampered by rheumatism?

1874

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. F. Burden, (Minnie Bass), Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Mr. R. F. Burden, husband of Minnie (Bass) Burden and father of Octavia (Burden) Stewart, '06 and Alice (Burden) Domingos, '08, was highly honored by his Macon friends in September when a bronze bust of Mr. Burden was unveiled in the Burden, Smith and Company store. Richard Burden Domingos, his grandson and namesake, unveiled the bust. Scores of his friends were present on the occasion and there were many expression of appreciation and affection for Mr. Burden. Mr. Burden celebrated his 83rd birthday in September. At the first Vineville Church service of the school year, Mr. Burden welcomed the Wesleyan girls in his charming way. He said, among other things, that he had known personally every president of Wesleyan since Wesleyan's founding, except one.

1875

Class Secretary: Mrs. L. J. Bradley (Lilly Johnson), Cartersville, Ga.

1876

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. G. Solomon (Lillian Roberts), 107 Buford Place, Macon, Ga.

I was glad when the word came that class notes would be given place again in the Alumnae magazine. I began at once to try to get news from "Old '76" and decided to write the first girl on the roll, Florrie (Allen) Chappell of Americus. I had a speedy reply which warmed my heart and cheered me mightily. Here are some extracts from the letter:

"My dear old girl: Now I ought not to have begun my letter to you that way, for none of us like to be called 'old'. I always think of you as a smart, frisky (I remember how you used to shake your head and shrug your shoulders), quick-stepping girl, but I know from my own self that we do not look as we used to look, nor talk or walk as we did. God has given us a long life, beyond the three score and ten, and blessed us in many ways. He must be keeping us here for some unfinished work. Your letter makes me remember the saying of Solomon, 'As cold water to a thirsty soul so is good news from a far country' for I had not heard directly from you for some time.

"Since my husband's death I live with my youngest son, Frank. I have no daughters, but four of the best sons a mother was ever blessed with, all married. Allen is Sumter County's representative in the Legislature. Dan lives in Miami and Huntington in Tampa. There are seven grandchildren, three girls and four boys."

With that personal item the letter ends. A few days after this I had a visit from another classmate, Fannie (Lamar) Gately of Atlanta, and we talked together long over old days at Wesleyan, sometimes with laughter and then with tears. She promised to send me something for the notes, and here it is:

"Dear Class Secretary and my own dear loyal friend:

"When you asked me to do something for you and for Wesleyan, my Macon and Wesleyan heart responded at once. Many years have come and gone since we graduated together in the class of 1876, but my first love, Wesleyan, has ever remained bright in my heart, and you, my friend, have always been a part of that shining light. I can truthfully say that my happiest years were spent at Wesleyan, years replete with the joy and fullness of youth, years that may not have been very easy for my oft-times tormented professors but were golden ones for me.

"I still cherish my medal, won for vocal and instrumental music, and also my graduation essay, 'Great Men of Our Day.' What could a girl of seventeen years know of great men of that day or of any other day? However, I feel much as a great man of these latter days, Ex-Governor Nathaniel Harris, did when inspecting the new Wesleyan at Rivoli for the first time. Said he, 'If my heart could be seen, one could always see a picture of Wesleyan College.'

"May she prosper with the years!"

—Lillian (Roberts) Solomon, Sec't.

Twelve-year-old Alice Gilbert Freeman, granddaughter of Alice (Trippe) Gilbert and niece of Annie (Trippe) Rambo had one of her poems, called "Things of Beauty" printed in her junior high school magazine in Greenville, S. C., and reprinted in the Atlanta Journal.

1877

The diploma of Theodosia (Davis) Warren was given to Wesleyan recently by her husband, Lott Warren of Atlanta. Mr. Warren also gave his mother's Wesleyan diploma, dated 1851. She was Sarah Elizabeth Hines.

1878

Class Secretary: Mrs. Washington Dessau (Fannie Gilmer) 301 Hines Terrace, Macon, Ga.

Verdie (Akin) Erwin writes: "Your card asking for news of me because of being in the class of 1878 was received. My six children and eleven grandchildren are, all of them, living respectively in Spokane, Yakima, and Tocomo, Washington, and Portland, Oregon. My younger son, David, was called from his 'tenement of clay' to a more permanent home in another life, and I am comforted by my belief that he is pursuing his adventures with his accustomed zeal in the next life. He gained distinction as 'publicity expert' in our country, South America and Japan in advancing the interests of General Motors. He was a beautiful, brilliant boy."

May Bonner has suffered recently with her wrist and has had to have a slight operation. She responded, however, to the class secretary's letter, and sent these reminiscences of her college days:

"To us, who came under his leadership, dear Dr. Bass stands on the celestial heights with the gates of eternity ajar for our entrance. Wisdom and knowledge he strove to impart and leave an enduring chart for Wesleyan.

"As you know, our senior year was a very active one. I had strenuous duties as secretary of the Adelpian Society, owing to personal efforts of each society member for enrollment and excellence in scholarship. There were many brilliant girls at that time in Wesleyan, and many endeavors. Competition was keen. It was Adelpian Exhibition year, and not an idle hour in the whole interim. Dear Mary Redding, Verdie Akin and I shared the senior essay medal in 1878.

"Fond love for the college, and you, and all who have entered Wesleyan's doors."

Florine (Dunlap) Stark of Richmond, Virginia, has been quite ill, but is much improved. Her sisters, Nettie (Dunlap) Wortham, A.B. '75, Lillie (Dunlap) Stevens, A.B. '82, and Clara (Dunlap) Badgley, A.B. '84, visit her often, and have brought most encouraging reports from her recently.

Fannie (Gilmer) Dessau is with her daughter, Geraldine (Dessau) Wheeler, of the class of 1900, at her home in Hines Terrace this winter. Fannie's little granddaughter, Frances Dessau, was a popular camper at Laurel Falls this summer. When she comes to Wesleyan before many more years, she will find in the Wesleyan library, among the most valuable books the college possesses, a bound volume of the old "Southern Ladies' Book" for 1840, which was given by Fannie (Gilmer) Dessau.

The class of 1878 was grieved to learn of the death of Annie (Grey) Brunner on June 7, 1932, at her home in Miami, Fla. Annie was a loyal Wesleyan alumna, and was with the class for the Golden Anniversary reunion in 1928.

Carrie Tracy (Johnson) Duncan is living now with her daughter, Mrs. Rodney Cohen, in Augusta. She has been in poor health lately. Carrie has two sons George and John. George and his son, George, Jr., visited her recently.

Dr. Mary McKay has been in Macon this summer, but in her clever, humorous way, writes of "visiting" the World's Fair, Europe, the seashore, etc., all within her four walls.

Georgia (Stroberg) Ingraham is living now at 37 W. 10th St., Jacksonville, Fla. She has three sons, two daughters, and six grandchildren. She was taken sick while visiting in Macon in September, and has not completely recovered yet. And for the first time in years she is denied the pleasure of her music now; she has always "kept up" her practice.

Annie (Tucker) Muse writes: "My boys and their wives are both well and happy. One of the granddaughters is teaching in Griffin and doing well. The younger one is in Boston, Mass., taking a course in nursing and dietetics, hoping to be a hospital dietitian. She is at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital. As for myself, I had a severe heart attack last November which kept me in bed most of the time until April, then another slighter attack in July. Right now I am feeling fine and have again taken up my Sunday School work and a little charity."

News from dear Viola (Wilbanks) Logan is particularly sad. Three years ago she lost her daughter, a beautiful young woman, who died of heart trouble. Last August a year ago her husband died. She is living now at 30 Park Side Drive, Atlanta, and writes: "Often the faces of my dear schoolmates come before me and I think fondly of the girls of my class. You know I entered Wesleyan in the prep class, and remained in the college until I graduated. It was my real home for all those years. My father and mother had both passed away, and it was their request that I be sent to Wesleyan and remain until I graduated. All the faculty were my dear friends and I loved them." The class of '78 deeply sympathizes with Viola in the loss of her two loved ones.

Bessie (Willingham) Tift has spent much of her life in church work, having taught a Sunday School class for 55 years, and having been elected president of the Missionary Society when it was organized in her home before Tifton was a town, an office which she still holds. She has the honor of being one of the first trustees of Tallulah Falls School (she is still on the Board), one of the first trustees of the Baptist W. M. N. Training School, Louisville, Ky., of which she is now trustee-at-large. She is trustee of Bessie Tift College, which is named for her, is life director in the Georgia Federation of Clubs, and has been president of the Twentieth Century Library Club of Tifton for 26 years. She had an unfortunate fall in January of this year, and her health has not been as good since.

1879

Class Secretary: Mrs. Cuyler King (Henrietta Nisbet) 1706 Park Dr., Charlotte, N. C.

Class Secretary: Mrs. Alfred Truitt (Ida Price), 1027 Columbia Ave., Atlanta, Ga.

The Alumnae Office had a delightful visit early in the year from Mr. and Mrs. Alexander M. Forrester of Washington, D. C. Mr. Forrester is a brother of the late Annie (Forrester) Cordero, who graduated from Wesleyan in the class of 1880. Mr. and Mrs. Forrester were at the time on their way to visit Oscar Cordero, Annie's son, in Jacksonville, Fla., and stopped by especially to see her Alma Mater and to give to the college an interesting "Autograph Album" which belonged to her when she was a student here. Mr. Forrester, who had been in the printing trade for 44 years, was retiring from the Government Printing Office.

Ida (Frederick) Wade delightfully entertained the Wesleyan Club of Marshallville at her home in October.

Margaret MeEvoy resigned as principal of Lanier High School for Girls in Macon after 52 years of teaching in the school system. She began the year after her graduation from Wesleyan to teach in the second grade. Five years ago she asked that the Board retire her, but they felt that the school could not do without her and begged her to stay longer. An article of appreciation appeared in the Macon Telegraph when her retirement was announced.

1881

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. W. Daves (Annie Hopkins), Cartersville, Ga.

1882

Class Secretary: Mrs. Mary Anderson (Mary Jones), Talladega, Ala.

Sympathy is extended to Julia (Cobb) McEvoy in the death of her husband, Robert P. McEvoy at his home in Mountain City last February. Mr. McEvoy was a brother of Margaret McEvoy, A.B. '80.

1883

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. D. Lamar, Dorothy (Blount), 238 Georgia Ave., Macon, Ga.

Dorothy (Blount) Lamar is one of the five members of the state commission for emergency relief, and is the only woman member.

1884

Class Secretary: Mattie Rogers, 274 Georgia Ave., Macon, Ga.

Did you read the delightful article in the magazine section of the Atlanta Journal for January 1, 1933, called "Mistress of the Snarks?" It was written by Lucille Bryant, of the class of '27, and was about Itura (Moreland) Leigh of the class of '84. "Miss Love," as Mrs. Leigh is affectionately called by her Grantville friends, makes animals, dolls, and other novelties of pine cones, bits of string, potatoes, nut shells,—any materials she finds. These have become so enormously popular, that she can hardly fill the orders she has for them from gift shops and individuals.

1885

Annie (Cargill) Cook's husband, Dr. Ed. F. Cook, was transferred from Vineville Methodist Church to Mulberry Street Church in April, after the death of Dr. Gregory, Mulberry Street pastor. Annie helps with much of the work of the church. Their son, Malcolm, completed his work for the M. D. degree at Emory University this year, and is now interne in Minneapolis.

Lena (Everett) Phillips has two daughters, one married to a Presbyterian minister of Lake Wales, Fla. She has three grandchildren, the youngest a teacher in Junior College in Waynesboro, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Virginia (Hill) Wilhoit of Warrenton in the death of her son, Lloyd A. Wilhoit, of Atlanta. He was 37 years old and was formerly city editor of the Atlanta Constitution.

1886

Class Secretary: M. Kate Neal, 1364 Emory Rd., Atlanta, Ga.

"Clasp hands again, so true my friends,
Life gives and takes away.

October is not May,

And yet our heart's can say:

Life's good while we have our friends"

In Loyalty's Quest, keeping on the path of yesterday (1886) we find these friends today (1933), Some on the highways, some on the byway, and some in depression valley.

Annie (Allen) Johnston spent the summer in Franklin, N. C. with her daughter, Lynn, (Mrs. G. L. Hank) and had a glorious trip to the Smoky Mountains. For the winter, she is with her daughter, Elizabeth, (Mrs. W. C. Jones), 3116 San Carlos, Tampa, Fla.

"Miss Lizzie" (Mrs. C. E. Pattillo), our beloved "Study Hall Lady" has the same address, and she is as erect, gracious and pretty as in the days of yore. Remember, she has a birthday only every four years—Feb. 29th.

"Sister Emily" (Mrs. Frank Siler), Wesleyan's fine English teacher, lives at Junaluska, N. C. with dimmed sight, dulled hearing, clear mind, courageous spirit, she writes inspirational poems as good as the best.

Lynn Branham likes Oxford so well, she seldom leaves her home town, but in mid-summer, Mrs. Corra Harris, with her usual rare art, induces Lynn to spend some days with her "In the Valley" at Rydal, Ga. Stopping later at the home of her sister, Mattie (Branham) Moore, '75 at Bolton, Ga., this generous hostess invites Lynn's Atlanta Wesleyan Classmates, and some near kin to come for a spend-the-day-party. O, rare day!

With the "feast of reason, and flow of soul," there is ye old southern style fried chicken, country ham, red gravy, peach pickle and—and—

The Branham family reunion on July 4th is an event in the classic village of Oxford, when many kith and kin and heart kin, gather at Lynn's, ancestral home, 125 years old.

M. Lillian Brewer seems to have learned the art of keeping young. Perhaps it is by many years of association with young people as she teaches art at Queens Chicora College, Charlotte, N. C. Lillie visited relatives at Decatur and Augusta this summer, but she spent the greater part of her vacation in Orlando, Fla with her cousin and old time Macon chum, Alice (Miller) Phillips.

Stella (Duncan) Cater is rather a fixed "Star," since she does not move much out of her Perry orbit as a physician's wife, and church woman, her good light shines in a dark world. "Star" has a fine memory for birthdays. Her rosy-yellow Elberta peaches are as tasty as Mamie's golden-yellow grapefruit and this is high praise.

Jimmie (Finch) Boone visited her brothers in Atlanta and Decatur in August and September. Atlanta was once her home, and her friends welcomed her cordially. She attended the Atlanta Wesleyan Alumnae reception at Druid Hills Golf Club, where she met Dr. Dice Anderson and the Atlanta girls who attend Wesleyan this fall.

Blanche (Hall) Neel enjoys many restful days at Indian Spring, when she slips away from home and grandchildren. "There are seven"—and some of us have none!

Wilmer Dickey, Jr., is the newest one, March 1933.

Mamie (Holtclaw) Robeson has two such pretty homes, "Echota", Marietta, Ga., and "The Rendezvous," Homosassa, Fla. She spends as much time going and coming, to see which place she likes better. She assisted her daughter, Harriett (Mrs. E. Lovett) when Harriett entertained her Wesleyan group recently at her home on Stratford Road. Mamie generously invited the Atlanta Alumnae president, Robert (Graham) Warner, to bring the Atlanta club to her Marietta home for the next meeting.

Annie (Hyer) Coleman loves the azure hued mountains, and spends her summer at Brevard, N. C. While there, she slipped away with two grandsons to the Century of Progress Exposition.

The Science hall claimed Annie's special interest, The Smith boys liked the midway.

Lizzie (Leonard) Hightower spent June at Daytona Beach, Florida, and August, on the lakes of Michigan, and many interesting days at the Century of Progress Exposition. A fine snap shot made at Daytona Beach, pictures Lizzie as happily enjoying the companionship of her beloved cousin, Mrs. Minnie (Drane) Bullock of Columbus, Ga., Wesleyan A.B. '73.

Found! Florence Irene Leonard.

It is not surprising that she has been hard to locate, since she is a cosmopolitan. She does religious and philanthropic work, and is now in Zurich, Switzerland. 80 Steinwerstrasse. Her home is in Manitou, Colorado.

Annie May (Mallery) Andrews has a fine son, Hubbel Andrews, an accountant of Springfield, Mass. He recently visited his old home at Macon, and took his mother for an interesting auto tour. They visited the Century of Progress Exposition, New York and New England relatives.

Ida (Killebrew) Wood is again living at her old home 2809 Highland Ave., Birmingham, Alabama. Her daughter (Mrs. Mary Wood Nicholson) with her husband and two children, joined Ida this summer at her cottage at Cloudland, Georgia. Dr. Alfred Nicholson, author and teacher, University Illinois, had not before spent a summer in the South. He is praiseful of our southland. William Wadsworth of New York is an inventor of note. The new mechanical service, known as "The Illustrated Voice" is the joint concern of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the Fairchild Wood Visaphone Corporation of New York City. Ida finds time for church and club now, and Wesleyan Alumnae meetings.

Alice (Miller) Phillips has five grandsons and two granddaughters. They all live in Orlando, and think grandmother should have plenty of ice cream and cookies, no matter how often they come to see her at 203 Lucerne Circle.

Ada (Murphey) Pound and her family have had many expressions of appreciation from their Athens friends, where they have been for twenty years associated in social religious and educational work. Dr. Jere Pound is now President of Georgia State Woman's College, Valdosta, Ga.

Emy (Norris) Hall spent August at Montreal, N. C. She says she "gets older, fatter, and meaner every day." We are not able to deny the first two statements, but we have fine evidence that the third is not correct.

Mattie (O'Daniel) Smith says, "she is not going to cut her hair, and she is not going to wear those dinky little hats." She has many pleasant week end trips, and finds much to interest her at home, flowers, chickens, crocheting.

Lura Simmons called on an old Wesleyan friends, and when she had gone, the friend said: "I did not remember that Lura was so pretty then, as now." We knew the many years of teaching little children the truths and ideal, of one who said "suffer the little children to come unto me," reflects in the soft voice and gentle beauty of our Lura. Her Sunday School class at St. Marks Church is her special interest.

Annie (Mix) Bowdre although a "shut in" at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Budd, 85 Inman Circle, Atlanta, is cheerful and interesting. She can tell much about the Episcopal Church, geneology and Wesleyan days.

Dr. Gustavas Richard Glenn, 1080 Reider Circle, Atlanta, has a birthday Dec. 5th, 84 years—a card of remembrance will be fine.

Minnie (Wilcox) Anderson is with her daughter Amelia, (Mrs. Roy Thigpen) 112 Clanton Ave., Montgomery, Ala. In August, Kate Neal was at St. Simon's Island, and attended Christ Church at Frederica, on the ground where John and Charles Wesley preached nearly two hundred years ago. Talking with the Rector, Rev. Charles Lee, he said: "I was the Rector of St. Paul Episcopal Church in Macon. The church is next door to Miss Mollie Mason's home. She had an old fashion flower garden, and her blossoms often adorned our church. My daughter Alice went to Wesleyan. The Wilcox girls were our church members and good friends."

Bobbie (Graham) Warner is our new Atlanta Alumnae president. We called her an "Irregular" in 1885. She was in some of our classes, so we are claiming her, asking a certain classmate by letter, if she remembered Bobbie, she replied: "Certainly I remember her with her pretty auburn hair, chic little aprons and attractive figure as she walked the long colonnades with Ida Nevin." Mrs. Edward G. Warner has had large experience in many progressive activities. As president of Atlanta Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, she has done outstanding work. As vice president of the Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints Church, she is interested in religious education, and gives illustrated lectures on the mission fields, as seen, when she has visited them on her world tours. She has some fine plans for our work for Wesleyan needs us, and we need Wesleyan with combined interest, let us say, "We do our part."

1886 Class Reunion is May 25-27, 1934.

"Better lo'ed ye can na' be

Will ye na' come back again?"

M. Kate Neal, Class Secretary

1887

Class Secretary: Mrs. E. A. Douglass (Jennie Martin), Sanford, Fla.

Sympathy is extended to Annie (Anderson) McKay in the death of her brother, General Clifford LeConte Anderson of Atlanta in September

1888

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. F. Stone (Ida Lowrey), Blakely, Ga.; Mrs. Wooten (Belle Stewart), Gray, Ga.

When the call came from Miss Loyall for class notes, this old Wesleyanne rejoiced, because the news we get from the girls of other years is the best part of the magazine.

Some months ago a long interesting letter came from Gertrude (Harris) Brown, (A.B. '89) Mrs. S. B. Brown, now of West Palm Beach, Fla. Gertrude has lived in the land of flowers for several years. The youngest of three children, Gertrude, is still in the home. S. B., Jr. is near, too, with his two fine sons. Susie, the oldest, A.B. '14, teaches in Winston-Salem, N. C. Gertrude expressed her love and loyalty for dear Wesleyan and inquired about some of the old friends, two of whom have passed into the Great Beyond. Since our last notes the grim reaper has entered and saddened our ranks. A sister of Irene Hendrix, Mabel, died at her home in Macon a few months ago. Zula (Ray) Mitchell's oldest daughter, Lulu, passed away at her home in Valdosta, leaving two little girls who spend much time in Acworth with Grandmother Zula, cheering the hearts of the older ones of the home.

Belle (Stewart) Wooten is visiting her daughter, Frances (class of 1924) who continues to teach history in the Girls' High School of Decatur. Frances had a marvelous trip to Chicago in August, seeing the sights of the big Fair.

Belle (Stewart) Wooten, Secretary

After the long absence of Class notes "Happy days are here again," when we may once more shake hands, as it were, with our erstwhile classmates. Speaking personally, our house is still, after almost a year and a half, a sort of demi-semi-hospital-theatre where my daughter-in-law and I have taken turns playing leading lady, but thanks to the skillful ministrations of "Dr. Jack," the husband of Reba (Moore) Standifer, Class 1912, we have our faces to the front and are hoping for brighter days!

I am sorry to learn that several more of our Class had severe physical afflictions during this year, among them our Assistant Secretary, Belle Stewart Wooten, who very nearly "slippit' awa" last winter when she suffered a severe attack of pneumonia, from which her recovery was slow. However, I was glad to see her name among those present at Wesleyan commencement in June.

Erminie Malone (Mrs. Idus Brabham, Hattievile, S. C.) has also been ill all summer, and has not yet regained her strength. She writes of the pleasure the Class notes are to her, and asks that she be remembered to all the "old girls." She recalls all the joys and sorrows of her college life, and hopes to have the three among her eight grandchildren matriculate at Wesleyan when they are old enough.

Louise (Morse) Riddle, Davisboro, Ga., writes that the Alumnae Magazine has been of much pleasure to her, and is gratified that the November number will contain class notes. For fourteen years Louise has been Postmaster at Davisboro. For thirteen years before she took the office she taught in the school at Davisboro, music for four years and grade work for the other nine years. They have been such busy years that she is looking forward with much pleasure to resting, when she retires as Postmistress on January 1, 1934. Of course then we shall expect her to attend our Reunion in May! She spoke of the Reunion and said that perhaps she could attend, knowing it would be a great pleasure to meet the class after so many years. Louise has been a widow for seven years, and having no children her mother's death five years ago left her very much alone, as she has no close relatives. I want her to be sure to come to the Reunion and see what a lot of class sisters she will find there, to reminisce with and live again some of girlhood's happy hours!

We were delighted to have a visit in August from my daughter, Polly (Florence), who still is so much in love with the Yale Library and the Connecticut climate that I'm afraid she'll turn into a regular what-you-call-'em Yankee yet! In spite of the excessive heat during her visit she gained ten pounds in weight, which speaks well for south Georgia!

After Belle (Robinson) Leigh's fall on the ice last winter when she suffered a broken limb, she was too overcome by my letter of sympathy to continue our infrequent correspondence. I too, was hors de combat at that time, and probably went into too much detail about my own invalidism. However, later a Journal notice told of her removal from St. Joseph's Hospital to her home at the Georgian Terrace, so I have the comfort of knowing that she survived both the accident and my letter!

Annie Bates (Mrs. Chas. J. Haden, 1521 Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.) (our own Alumnae Trustee) was in Macon recently at a meeting of the National Executive Board of the Alumnae Association. Annie did such a lovely thing last winter. Hearing through Belle (Stewart) Wooten's daughter of my serious illness, she wrote me at once, extending a cordial invitation to come up and do my convalescent stunt in her lovely home, but my convalescence developed into such a long-continued up-and-down performance I hadn't the heart to inflict it on such warm-hearted friendship! And I was disappointed in not seeing Annie this summer, as I had hoped to do.

Sallie Lowrey, (Mrs. Fred A. Wolfe, North, S. C.) who begun doing volunteer Red Cross work during the World War, has kept it up during all the intervening years, and for the past few months has been helping in county Relief Work, but her doctor has called a halt in her many activities. Mildred, her daughter who attended our Class reunion with her mother has taken up the county Relief work and is "carrying on." Sallie's two sons are teaching in North Carolina, and she and her husband "keep the home fires burning" to welcome them on their occasional visits home.

Florence (Nesbit) Chambers' husband is connected with Reforestration Work, and lately she has lived for awhile in nearly all the small towns between Macon and Savannah, but is at present making her home at 208 East 44th Street, Savannah, Ga., where they will spend the winter. She enclosed what she called "a small bit" for the Loyalty Fund, which I am forwarding with my own to Miss Loyall. It's consoling to remember that "many a mickle makes a muckle." Florence says that she will never cease to love the Wesleyan girls—and particularly our class! She has a son and a daughter, plus two sweet grandchildren, a girl of fifteen, and a boy of four! Who that saw her at our reunion would believe it!

Last but not least, I present Miss Hopkins, Carnegie Librarian, Atlanta, Ga., who as president presided at the biennial meeting of the Georgia Library Association to be held in Athens, Ga. November 2nd, 3rd and 4th. She left recently for Chicago to attend the annual meeting of the American Library Association, being one of the special delegates appointed by the Governor to represent Georgia. Now this all sounds very dignified and proper, but listen! I sent her a card, asking for some personal message to celebrate the restoration of Class Notes—"even if its only about your first gray hair!" So, in the spirit of fun that was characteristic of the "Jessie" of Wesleyan days, she did just that, and no more! She described the first horrible moment of its realization; she was trying on a hat, and feeling very coquettish, when the saleslady said, "This hat will look lovely with your gray hair." "How absurd," thought Jessie, "my hair is not gray!" She didn't buy the hat, of course, after "that undiplomatic remark of the saleslady," but, to quote again, "when I reached home I looked in the mirror with a hard, searching glance, and sure enough, there it was!"

Finally, what about every member of our Class attending our next Reunion in May 1934? What if we all wear platinum tresses—I read recently that in this day of hair-hennaing, the white tresses really convey distinction! So let's all manage by some hook or crook, hitch-hiking or air-planing, to be on the doorstep at Wesleyan when the doors are opened on May 25, 1934. (The dates are May 25-27). The eight of us who were there at our first reunion have hugged its memory to our hearts. So please make your plans, come from far and near, and let's get together again and laugh and cry over the remembered experiences of our college days at old Wesleyan!

Ida (Lowrey) Stone, Secretary

Class Secretary: Mrs. George Watson

(Annie Lou Laney), 319 Duncan Ave., Macon, Ga.

At our reunion four years ago there were eight members of our class present and our hopes were high for an even larger number at the reunion this May. Lella Clark and I went again and again to search the pages of the registration book, but finally and sorrowfully found ourselves to be the only representatives of '89.

Several letters of regret and explanation were received.

Florence (Richardson) Ball wrote: "My husband and I will leave on May 30 for Chicago to attend the Y. M. C. A. National Council, so I shall not be able to meet with you this time. We are also planning to go to Jerusalem in July."

Amanda (Sexton) Taber says, "I can never leave the office until August. I am connected with an Appellate Court as an opinion clerk and as long as it hands down decisions I have to be on the job. My best wishes to all of you."

Bettie (Sessions) Hannah had planned to come to our reunion but the illness of a grandchild prevented. She was expecting a visit from Imogene (Walker) Hannah, who is convalescing after a long illness.

Cora (Bailey) Acosta's address is Route 4, Box 354, Ortega, Jacksonville. Because of incomplete address she did not receive her invitation in time to join us at our reunion.

Julia (Jones) Higgison had a short visit from Lutie Westcott, '88. Lutie is a member of the faculty of Woman's College, Tallahassee, Fla.

Lella Clark's mother, our own dear Mrs. J. O. A. Clark (Ella Anderson, A.B. '62) is suffering with a broken hip. This news will cause keen sorrow to Wesleyan alumnae far and wide for she is widely known and tenderly loved.

Anne Lou (Laney) Watson,
Class Secretary

Elizabeth Ragland is assistant secretary of the Department of Industrial Relations of Georgia, with headquarters in Atlanta.

1890

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. P. Coleman (Ida Mangham), Massee Apts., Macon, Ga.

Lila May (Chapman), referred to by residents of Birmingham as "one of our outstanding citizens," was voted by the South

Georgia Conference meeting in Brunswick as an alumnae trustee of Wesleyan, this last formal step completing her election to a three years term on the board of trustees.

Addie (Corbin) Stone with her sister, her daughter Margaret, and her son Charles visited her daughter Gladys (Stone) Bowen, ex, '15, in Cincinnati, in September, Charles and Margaret going to Chicago to the fair also. Gladys visited her mother in Macon during the summer.

Ida (Mangham) Coleman had a delightful summer in England enjoying picturesque Cornwall and friendly Devonshire. In September she took her niece, Elizabeth Walker, attractive member of Wesleyan's junior class, and her nephew Albert Walker, the children of Fannie (Hill) Walker, ex, '08, to the Century of Progress in Chicago.

1891

Class Secretary: Mrs. Walter Grace, Sr. (Ruby Jones), 631 Forsyth St., Macon, Ga.

Mary Culler White spent the past year visiting friends and relatives in Georgia. She returned in August to China, where she has served for years as a missionary. She was delightfully entertained while here by many organizations of the churches, Sunday Schools and missionary societies with whom she has been associated, and was the guest of Wesleyan for Commencement.

1892

Class Secretary: Mary Bond Smith, Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Leila (Holmes) Ridout and to her daughter, Ellen (Ridout) Cater of Greensboro, N. C. in the death of their husband and father in September.

1893

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. O. Jones (Loula Evans), Newnan, Ga.

1894

Class Secretary: Mrs. Lucy K. Johnson (Lucy Keen), 15 Woodbine Rd., Irvington, N. Y.

1895

Class Secretary: Mrs. Harry Ainsworth (Marion Hayes), Thomasville, Ga.

Marion (Hayes) Ainsworth's son, Harry Hayes Ainsworth, is a cadet at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C., this year.

Daisy (Mitchell) Cooper and her daughter, Virginia, have returned to Thomasville to live, after spending last winter in Miami.

1896

Class Secretary: Mrs. Phil Lanier (Anna Wooten), West Point, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Eva Arnold in the death of her mother, Mrs. Sallie M. Arnold on March 9, in her 86th year. Eva gave up her school duties several years ago to stay with her mother, and was a devoted companion to her from that time until her death.

1897

Class Secretary: Mrs. S. T. Coleman (Edith Stetson), 317 College St., Macon, Ga.

Jamie (Frederick) McKensie's son, John, was married in March to Miss Louise Lewis of Montezuma. He is a graduate of Emory Academy in Oxford and of the University of Georgia.

Edith (Stetson) Coleman has a new granddaughter and namesake, born July 29.

1898

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. G. Stephens (Lucy Evans), 615 Linwood Ave., Atlanta, Ga.

Mary (Callaway) Jones has published a 20-page pamphlet on Mercer's early days at Penfield.

Dr. Lawton B. Evans, brother of Lucy (Evans) Stephens, was presented one of 16 university medals awarded to Columbia alumni who "have performed useful or exceptional service in public or professional life." Dr. Evans is county superintendent of schools in Augusta, Ga.

1900

Class Secretary: Mrs. J. E. Hays (Louese Frederick), Montezuma, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Johnnie (Holmes) Sparks in the death of her husband, Robert L. Sparks, Macon business man and much-beloved friend of Wesleyan, in the spring. The news of Mr. Sparks' death was announced to the Wesleyan students at a chapel service and Dr. D. R. Anderson expressed the appreciation of Mr. Sparks and his friendship for the college through many years.

Effie (Landrum) Shelton wrote in the spring:

"I have two sons, no daughters. The older, James, is graduating from the University of Michigan in June. Chastain is graduating at Central High School here in Washington, D. C. June 22. He is only 16, but wants to enter Princeton this fall. He made the national honor society,—has made all A's and B's in high school and stands high in his class of 550 pupils. He seems able to put forth his best efforts when he studies. James took a regular course and wants to be a lawyer.

"Mr. Shelton is in the Public Roads division of the government and likes his work very much."

Sympathy is extended to Corra (Weston) Wilcox of Hilton Head, S. C., in the death of her father, Rev. J. W. Weston, in April.

1901

Class Secretary: Mrs. Oscar Crittenden (Helen Land), Shellman, Ga.

Mary (Park) Polhill sent from LaGrange the very oldest "report" of a Wesleyan student that we possess. It is that of Mary Jane Broome, later Mrs. Guinn, of the class of 1848. It is the gift of Mrs. R. M. Young, the daughter of this very early Wesleyanne who made an excellent record as her report shows. It is in a perfect state of preservation, and gives the studies of the day,—Astronomy, Natural Philosophy, Mental Philosophy, Mineralogy and Geology, Analysis of History, Composition. There is a place for Unexcused Absences from Prayers, as well as from recitations. The system of grading is interesting, 100 indicating Very Good, and 400, Very Bad!

Viola (Ross) Napier is first vice president of the Georgia Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

1902

Class Secretary: Mrs. F. M. Mullino (Mary Addie (Murph) Montezuma, Ga.

Matibel (Pope) Mitchell is new trustee of the Washington Memorial Library board of trustees, succeeding Florence Bernd, A.B. '88, resigned.

Mattie (Hatcher) Flournoy is the proud grandmother of a beautiful baby boy, Jack Melchers Passailaigue having arrived at her Wildwood Circle home in Columbus, March 1.

We are happy to receive the announcement of Hattie (Wimberly) Hudson's daughter's marriage to John Judson Jennelle on August 5.

Greetings to you girls of 1902! Please let me hear from you some time.

Mary Addie (Murph) Mullino,
Class Secretary

Mary Addie (Murph) Mullino is superintendent of literature and publicity of the Woman's Missionary Society of Montezuma.

1903

Class Secretary: Lucy Lester, 658 Pensacola St., Tallahassee, Fla.

1904

Class Secretary: Mrs. T. L. Ross (Helen Roberts) 629 Orange St., Macon, Ga.

It has been such a long time since we have had any class news that I for one am hungry for it. But I haven't much to give you. Won't each one of you write me something for our next Alumnae issue?

Our Louise Lin spent part of the summer in Macon teaching. On her vacation at home she was kept busy helping with her niece, Mary Louise Foster's trousseau.

Fannie (Harris) Wallace is society editor on the Marietta Journal. She has a small apartment in Marietta, but I understand her many friends there are always having her visit them.

Martha (Weaver) Sutton's husband, Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools and past president of the National Educational Association, was seriously injured in an automobile accident in May; was in the hospital most of the summer, but is able now to attend to his school duties. Much interest was shown in his condition by friends in all parts of the United States. Sympathy is extended to Martha, also, in the recent death of a brother.

And we extend sympathy to Martha (O'Hara) Reppard in the loss of her fifteen-year-old son, Reville, who was killed by a hit-and-run driver in February. Her daughter, Alice, a member of the class of '33, is to be married in November to Travis Slayden of Holly Springs, Fla.

Almena (Coleman) Pierson's son is a freshman this year at the University of Florida and has pledged S. A. E. Almena's daughter is only thirteen, and she says that when the neighbors want her to go home all they have to say is "Mart, you look like mother," and she says, "Goodbye, I've got to go."

Bessie (Matthews) O'Neal's daughter, Elizabeth, is at the University of Georgia. Her oldest son is practicing law with his father in Bainbridge.

Tommie Lou (Turner) Craft is a grandmother, and Dessa says she thinks she is the only grandmother.

I had an enjoyable chat with Dessa (Hayes) Asher in Atlanta recently. Dessa is kept busy with her civic and social activities and her large family.

My son, Tom Jr., is practicing medicine in Atlanta with my brother, Dr. Stewart Roberts. Helen, Jr. is studying this year at the University of Chicago and living at the International House.

Now girls, I have some real news for you. We are to have another class reunion this June, 1934, and we must begin right now to work and plan for it. We had such a wonderful time in 1930 that I'm sure none of us will ever want to miss one.

Helen (Roberts) Ross, Class Secretary
Sympathy is extended to Kate (Callaway) Malone in the death of her mother in November, 1932, at the age of 81.

Annie (McGuire) Beall's son, Olin Gordon Beall, is to be married to Alice Myers of Sewanee, Tenn. Annie's two daughters, Anita and Dorothy, are both students at Wesleyan this year.

1905

Class Secretary: Margie Burks, Florida State College for Women, Tallahassee, Fla.

Margie Burks sent the Alumnae office an interesting collection of old programs of 1903, 1904, 1905 and 1906. "Miss Margie" is again teaching at Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee.

Anne (Shaw) Richardson's son, Stewart, 13 years old, was awarded first prize in the state-wide essay contest sponsored by the U. D. C. His essay was on Sidney Lanier, and the prize was a two-month's stay at Camp Dixie in Wiley, Ga. Another son, Charles, Jr., in the junior class at the University of Georgia, was recently promoted to lieutenant-colonel of the R. O. T. C.

1906

Class Secretary: Mrs. T. J. Stewart (Ottavia Burden), Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Jennie (Riley) Crump and to Julia (Riley) Struby in the death of their father, Joseph Blount Riley, prominent Macon druggist, in April.

Laura Carson, daughter of Laura (Smith) Walker, was married during the summer to Robert Lee Chastain of West Palm Beach, Fla. Her mother was the first member of the class of 1906 to be married, and she gave to her daughter two handsome silver goblets which formerly belonged to the bride's great great grandfather.

1907

Class Secretary: Mrs. Nelson Mallary (Willie Erminger), 117 Callaway St., Macon, Ga.

Dear Classmates:

I spent the night recently with Nannaline (King) Byrd in her beautiful home. Madison was at Georgia but her younger boy, Jim, was there, and is just the kind of boy any-one of us would like to have.

Elizabeth (Moseley) Coles' boy is rooming with Camille (Lamar) Roberts' oldest son at Emory University.

Sara Branham is studying again at the University of Chicago, completing her work for the M. D. degree.

I had a delightful letter from Rhoda Cheves last April. She has had a most interesting life, and I hope she will be able to tell us all about herself at our class reunion, which is scheduled for May, 1934.

My daughter, Caroline, is boarding at Wesleyan, and is simply thrilled over it. One of her friends is the daughter of Claire (Munroe) Bates. I have met her and she is a very attractive girl.

Things look brighter in Mary (Balkcom) Brown's household, though when things were at their worst she kept her spirits up marvelously. She has entirely recovered from her broken back, and her husband is back at work after his long illness.

Mattie (Chappell) Lawton was in Macon recently but I did not know it until nearly time for her to leave and did not have an opportunity to see her. I heard that she was fine.

A friend of mine here went to Europe this summer in the same party with Agnes Lynn Jones and reports that she is quite young-looking.

Caro (Twitty) Martin's friendly, attractive daughter is a sophomore at Wesleyan this year.

Willie (Erminger) Mallary,
Class Secretary

Sympathy is extended to Odille (King) Dasher and to her daughter, Odille (Dasher) Phelts in the death of their husband and father, Ben. J. Dasher on December 23, 1932 of a heart attack. Mr. Dasher was a prominent Macon attorney, and had just completed an argument before the Georgia Supreme Court in Atlanta when he was stricken with the attack which proved fatal four days later. Mr. Dasher is survived by two sons also, three brothers and four sisters, three of whom are Wesleyan alumnae, Maybelle (Dasher) Barnes, Evalyn (Dasher) Harris, and Louise (Dasher) Enloe.

1908

Class Secretary: Mrs. Clayton Buchanan (Mattie Adams), 208 Vineville, Ave., Macon, Ga.

Alice (Burden) Domingos' son, Roy, is studying at Wesleyan Conservatory this year, piano from Prof. Joseph Maerz and pipe organ from Mrs. Jelks.

Alma Fennell, Gainesville, Fla., wrote to the Alumnae office in May, at the time of her class reunion: "I deeply regret that I will be unable to attend our class reunion this year. Since April, 1931, the greater part of the time, I have been confined to my bed with angina pectoris. I have been unable to teach for over two years."

Sympathy is extended to Clyde (Malone) Cohen in the death of her mother on September 28.

Irma (Neal) Little's son, Rosser, is a student at the University of Georgia this year.

The rotogravure section of the Atlanta Journal for October 8 carried pictures of a parade in Marietta, Ga., in which Regina (Rambo) Benson drove one of the early model automobiles, she having been the first women in Cobb County to drive a car on a state-wide tour. She put on a pageant commemorating the 100 years of her church in October.

1909

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. C. Cantrell (Estelle Manning), Carrollton, Ga.

Manell (Foster) Clements delightfully entertained the Wesleyan Club of Havana, Cuba on June 13 with a tea given in honor of her former Wesleyan classmate, Carrie (Marchman) Connally. Lucile Lewis, A.B. '21, Secretary of the club, sent this information to the Alumnae office.

Sympathy is extended to Mary Lee (Oliphant) Brown, A.B. '09, to Jean (Oliphant) Rentz, A.B. '17, and to Rebekah (Oliphant) Anthony, A.B. '23, in the death of their brother, William F. Oliphant, young Macon architect, after a two months' illness.

Lillie (Rowan) Hutchinson attended commencement in an unusual capacity, that of attending her own reunion as a literary graduate of the college and of witnessing her daughter Novelle receive the M. B. degree from the conservatory. Novelle, by studying in the summers, won both degrees in the four years usually required for one. She received her A. B. from Southern College while her father was stationed in Lakeland; then won the Radio Scholarship to the conservatory where by doing more than the average year's work, she completed the work for the M. B. degree in one year. They are now living in St. Augustine where Rev. Hutchinson is stationed.

1910

Class Secretary: Mrs. Robert D. Shaw (Susie Kroner), 2019 E. 14th St., Tulsa, Okla.

Jennie Daughtry spent the summer in Allentown, Ga. She has returned to Macon and has reopened her school of dramatic art and expression.

Susan (Kroner) Shaw writes:

"Your letter about class notes was forwarded to me from Plymouth. We moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma in September in time for school after our usual delightful summer at Black Lake in Michigan. Young Bob graduated from the Plymouth High school in June with many honors to his credit. He is now a cavalry cadet at Oklahoma Military College, one of the 21 honor schools on the list of the U. S. War Department, out of 600 in the U. S. This school is not far from Tulsa and young Bob is in the Junior College. Martha Frances is at the Barnard School here and is making a name for herself as a baseball, volleyball and soccer player. She is an athletic girl and a very enthusiastic girl scout.

"My husband was transferred to Tulsa in April as assistant general salesmanager of the Dowell, Inc., a subsidiary of the Dow Chemical Company of Midland, Michigan. He has supervision of all sales in six states.

"My mother and sister, Louisa, (A.B. '25) spent last summer with me at Black Lake again and Louisa has bought a cottage on the lake. She is teaching this year at Grayson, Ga., and is very busy getting ready for publication a book on high school chemistry."

1911

Class Secretary: Mrs. Warren Timmerman, (Marie Adams), 657 College St., Macon, Ga.

Marie (Adams) Timmerman with her husband and her daughter Mary had a three weeks motor trip to Quebec with stops in New York and Washington in June, Mr. Timmerman having been sent by the insurance company which he represents. Marie's daughter Evelyn will be at Wesleyan in two more years as she is in the junior class at high school now; Mary is in the seventh grade. Both girls attended Laurel Falls camp during the summer.

Ora Lee Camp writes from Winder: "I have a Fire and Casualty Insurance business representing ten companies. I have done rather well with business, and I like having something to interest me and to take me to town to my own place each day.

"For a vacation this year, I spent a week at the Century of Progress, and enjoyed it and seeing Chicago for the first time very much. One of my pleasures while there was seeing Amos and Andy in person."

Emma Gardner is living in Rome. She writes: "I have been in Rome for the past four years as bookkeeper-auditor for the Tubige Chatillon Corporation otherwise known as the 'silk mill.' Now that we are working the forty hours, we have Saturdays off so that I have longer week-ends with mother who lives only sixteen miles from Rome. She is still a good sport at eighty-four, and went with me for our vacation trip this year to Chicago to the fair and to visit my brother. I'm planning to come to our next reunion."

Hazel (Hamilton) Rogers with Dr. Rogers and the two children Hazel and Edgar enjoyed a trip to the Century of Progress in Chicago.

Nina (Johnson) La Frage writes from New Bern, N. C., "Although I have been living in North Carolina for a long time, I still feel a keen interest in my native state, Georgia, and in Wesleyan. I enjoy the alumnae magazine. For nine years I have been a teacher here. There have been many Georgia teachers in this state from various colleges, but so far I seem to have been the only representative that Wesleyan has here. I have a son and a daughter both out of school."

Gladys (Napier) Corbin is president of the P.-T. A. of Miller High School where her two nieces and adopted daughters, Walton and Louise Bowen have been students, Walton having received the P.-T.A. award as the most outstanding senior in June. Gladys' only son, Culver, Jr. is at Tech.

Mary (Ponder) Hatch is living in Atlanta at 836 North Ave. She writes: "It is grand to be living in Georgia once more, and I am looking forward to seeing and hearing about Wesleyan friends."

Winnie (Power) Groover writes: "After nine years of teaching, followed by two years of secretarial work, I was married in June 1925 to Marshall E. Groover then of Roswell, Ga. Six years ago we moved to La Grange. I have two step-children, now grown, and my own two children, a little daughter, Eva Winifred, six years old, and a very little son, Charles William, six months old. Both are a great joy to me. I am very happy and very busy."

At her home in Chicago, Betty Lou (White) Fisher had as her guest during the summer her mother and Wesleyan's beloved matron, Mrs. Florrie White. Together they made a strong magnet for the Wesleyan alumnae visiting the fair, more than forty having called upon them.

1912

Class Secretary: Jennie Loyall, Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga.

Alice (Domingos) Evans has come back to the United States to live, and is in Atlanta for two years at least. For Captain Evans of the U. S. Army is now instructor at Tech, after having been stationed for two years in the Philippines. Their two sons are enjoying being at school in America once more after many interesting experiences in the East. Their Atlanta address is 615 Morningside Drive, N. E.

We extend sympathy to Emma (Gaillard) Boyce in the death of her mother at Griffin in February. Fortunately Emma had visited her mother for the last two weeks of Mrs. Gaillard's life. She had just reached her home in Baldwin, Miss., when she received word of her mother's sudden death, and returned to Georgia at once.

Jennie Loyall spent July and August abroad staying chiefly in France and Italy.

To Rosalie (Mallory) Willingham we extend our deepest sympathy in the tragic death of her oldest son, Broadus III, in October. He was a junior in Georgia Tech, preparing to follow his father and grandfather whose namesake he was as head of the Willingham Cotton mills. He and two college mates from Augusta had been to Athens to the Tulane-Georgia game and to visit in Augusta, and were returning to Atlanta for their school work on Monday when their car hit the guard rail of a bridge near Lawrenceville, killing Broadus and one of his companions. He had graduated three years ago at Baylor school in Tennessee with honor. At Tech he was a popular member of the S. A. E. fraternity, which sent an honorary escort of thirty members to his funeral in Macon.

Reba (Moore) Standifer's daughter, Sarah Eleanor, is a senior in high school this year, and plans to come to Wesleyan next fall. She will be our first class daughter to come to Wesleyan.

Marie (McManus) Kernaghan has a home newly remodeled and furnished with interesting souvenirs of her trip abroad; her husband has recently entered the jewelry business again in the new firm in Macon of Kernaghan-Goodman; and she has a splendid new son whose mention brings a beam to her face. Her three sons are Eugene, Jr., Bob, and Dick.

Alleen (Poer) Hinton and her husband took a vacation trip by motor to New York where they sailed on a delightful cruise to Canada on the Empress of Britain.

We extend sympathy to Eula (Riley) McAfee in the sudden death in April of her husband, Dr. J. C. McAfee, prominent Macon physician, and business man of wide interests.

Sallie Frank Thompson came to commencement from her same old stamping-ground, Hawkinsville, which she calls home in spite of her wanderings into other places teaching and secretarialing. She was as refreshing and as attractive as ever.

1913

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. J. Taylor (Elizabeth Baker), 1985 Ponce de Leon Ave., N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Elizabeth (Baker) Taylor, A.B. '13, Georgia Baker, A.B. '17, Lois (Baker) Burghard, ex'25, and Dorothy (Baker) Burghard in the death of their mother, Mrs. T. N. Baker in July.

From the Macon Telegraph: "Katharine Carnes, librarian of Wesleyan, who is a Carnegie scholar, having taken her M.A. degree at the University of Michigan in library science, will have charge of the college section of the biennial meeting of the Georgia Library Association at the University of Georgia in November." Katharine had a vacation trip to New York during the summer.

Annie (Gantt) Anderson with her husband enjoyed a trip to the Century of Progress in Chicago. Her daughter Eugenia spent the summer at Laurel Falls camp.

In the magazine section of the Billings Montana Gazette for August 6 is an article by Edgar Snow about Chung Ling (Soong) Sun, entitled "She Fights for China's Masses." He says "Her position in China today is unique. A widow of Dr. Sun, whom the Kuomintang has elevated to the status of a national god, she is foremost among Chinese women. Everywhere Chinese love and respect her with a reverence akin to worship. Any office in the land might be hers.

"I have never met anyone who inspires such instant trust and affection as Madame Sun. Unquestioned integrity like hers glows like a sublime light. She seems devoid of personal ambitions, incapable of selfish acts, or half-truths. She seems unaware of her exquisite beauty, a beauty that seems to derive from within, as from some great goodness. About her there are certain qualities of grace, of gentleness and compassion curiously reminiscent of Dr. Sun. Her championship of the masses is no mere attitude. She has sacrificed comfort, social popularity and the conveniences of wealth."

1914

Class Secretary: Mrs. Carroll Griffin (Kathleen Holder), 115 16th St., N. W., Atlanta, Ga.

1915

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. S. Dodd (Carolyn Knight), 1913 S. W. 11th St., Miami, Fla.

Margaret (Akerman) Menard's husband was honored by being elected president of the Macon Civitan Club for this year.

1916

Class Secretary: Mrs. Jessie W. Davis (Merlyn Hiley), Vineville Court Apt., Macon, Ga.

Gladys Anthony rested from her work as assistant principle of Plant High School in Tampa by taking a cruise during the summer vacation. She wrote in July: "We have been on the freight boat 'Mar Negro' for over six weeks already and have enjoyed every minute of the time."

Lida Franklin writes:

"Miriam Rogers visited her old home this summer. How we enjoyed her! she looks fine.

"Eleanor (Atkinson) Stillwell (A.B. '15) has a young son entering the first grade in Decatur this year. Her daughter is very attractive. A lovely home to visit!

"Nita (Morgan) Board (A.B. '15) and family are back in Cuba. She has a splendid Sunday School class, composed of young men. Josephine is in the school in Havana. She plans to come to Wesleyan before long.

"Mozelle Tumlin (A.B. '15) keeps busy with her mission children in far away Japan. She writes that she is helping the new workers get acquainted. She enjoys her visiting.

"Irma (Means) Marsden (Music '14) lost both her mother and father in an automobile accident last Christmas. Oh, how we sympathize with her! God has sent a ray of sunshine into her home this summer. Holsey Means arrived July 25th. Jamie (Bachman) Brewer ('13) visited friends in Newark during the summer, and drove over for a day with Erma in Flushing, L. I.

"I had a trip to Chicago and the Century of Progress this summer."

1917

Class Secretary: Georgia Baker, Public Library, Main Branch, Toledo, Ohio.

Kitty (Cater) Jones was elected president of the Macon club of the Phi Mu alumnae in March.

A picture of little Mary Lane Mallett, daughter of Mary (Lane) Mallett, appeared in the Atlanta Journal in the spring at the time of the unveiling of the U. D. C. tree in Jackson, Ga.

1918

Class Secretary: Mrs. J. L. Murphy (Marian Cook), 69 Pine St., Rockview Centre, Long Island, N. Y.

Genie Fincher writes:

"Three of the class of 1918 have responded with interesting bits of news. Mary Will Wakeford says that she spent six weeks studying the French novel at the University of Georgia this summer, and then went to Mexico City for a short and fascinating vacation. There she saw 'Tommie' Thompson, A.B. '28, known by many Wesleyan girls of classes more recent than ours.

"Lois (Dismuke) Hudson writes that she spent a very pleasant summer. She visited Elizabeth (Hudson) Glass, for a short while in Macon.

"Elizabeth (Gibson) Vickers, Hattiesburg, Miss., writes such a good long letter with so much news that I am sending it.

"I am still nursing here in Atlanta. I went as nurse on one of the Methodist Christian Adventure Camps in July and had a marvelous time teaching and giving first aid to about 75 boys and girls, aged 12 to 16. The religious and recreational courses taught there were very helpful."

And here is Elizabeth (Gibson) Vickers' letter:

Dear Genie:—

I would love to hear from you sometime; what have you been doing with yourself?

My three children are growing fast; Betty will be 9 this month, Ladson (H. L., Jr.) will be 7 this month also, and Norman is 2½ years old.

We live six miles in the country, have all the conveniences of the town and a lot more pleasures and privileges. The greatest inconvenience is carrying Betty and Ladson back and forth to school every day.

I do some P.-T. A. work and club work but not very much. We belong to Main Street Church and I am interested in my Sunday School class, girls 18-24.

My husband's mother (who is also a Wesleyan alumna, May (Goodman) Vickers, A. B. '85) and father had lived with us for the past six years. But his father died in September and she has gone now to Tifton and will go on to Miami to make her home with a daughter there. We surely do miss them.

I am expecting my sister, Mrs. S. M. Mathews, (her address now is 1302 W. Peachtree Street, Apt. 124) to come out to see me this month. She was Evelyn Gibson of the class of 1927, married in 1931 and has a baby nearly a year old now.

Affectionately yours,

Beth (Gibson) Vickers.

Verna (French) Shaffer has her first child, a little boy, H. A. Shaffer, Jr., born September 12. Verna writes excitedly of the "big news"—and says that she is especially happy over his coming since they have waited for him thirteen years! She says, "Please break the news to Mrs. White that she is a 'grandma'. I will try to bring him and show him off at Wesleyan's centennial three years from now."

Helen (Hosier) Underwood has a little girl, born August 15.

Vail (Jones) Weems was installed president of the Staff and Book Club of Sebring, Fla. The club is studying the origin and development of music and art. Dr. Weems is president of the Sebring Rotary Club this year. Little Verna Vail, who celebrated her eighth birthday with a big party in October, was a junior brides-maid in Dorothy (Quillian) Smith's wedding in Milledgeville recently.

A daughter Susan, was born to Polly (Pierce) Corn in June. This is the fourth child and second daughter. Polly's oldest child, Anne, was a popular camper at Laurel Falls Camp in Clayton, Ga. this summer.

Ruth (Pike) Key has a fine class in piano and expression in LaGrange this year.

Sympathy is extended to Adeline (Small) Lane in the death of her brother, A. H. Small, Jr., business man of Atlanta in an automobile accident in September.

Sue (Tanner) McKenzie has a little girl, Susan Ann, born March 28.

1919

Class Secretary: Mrs. A. L. Gilmore (Rosaline Jenkins), 1253 N. President St., Jackson, Miss.

Clara (Carter) Acree has a little daughter, Anne, born in November, 1932. Her son, Maurice Acree, Jr., is four years old.

Friends of Frances (Gurr) McLanahan have been greeting each other with "Did you see that attractive picture of Frances in Harper's Bazaar?" Which picture, the good-looking one in the evening wrap, or the one of her hands illustrating that article on women's hands, "Well, I saw both, and they were lovely," and then there would be much conversation about Frances, a general favorite.

Rosaline (Jenkins) Gilmore has a son, John Louis, born October 12. Her address is now 1276 Congress St., Jackson, Miss.

1920

Class Secretary: Mrs. Mark Ethridge

(Willie Snow), 538 Washington Ave., Macon, Ga.

Nell (Bates) Penland, of Waycross, was elected president of the Medical Auxiliary of Georgia for the coming year.

Sympathy is extended to Helen (Budd) Terry and to her sister, Margaret (Budd) Stephenson, ex '33, in the death of their father, Rev. W. H. Budd of Porterdale on December 14, 1932.

Agnes Clark, better known as Kim, has received her Master's degree from Tulane. She is teaching in Louisville now, after having been councillor at a camp in the mountains of N. C. during the summer.

Ellamae (Ellis) League is the only woman registered architect in Georgia. She is not only a successful architect but the mother of two charming children, Jean 14, and Joseph 12.

Beulah (Smith) Jelks with her two sons Howard, Jr., aged six, and Allen aged three spent the summer in the mountains of North Georgia, visiting her family in Macon en route to and from Ft. Lauderdale.

Willie (Snow) Ethridge received one of the Oberlaender Trust Company fellowships for furthering a better understanding between Germany and America and had six months travel in Europe this past spring and summer. Her husband, Mark, also received one for his outstanding editorial work as managing editor of the Macon Telegraph for the past eight years, and for his social work in Georgia. Willie enjoys the distinction of being the first person ever to receive this award without realizing that she had done so. She was nearing the end of her delightful stay in Germany when the report of the Trust Company giving the list of recipients was published. There was her name next to that of Einstein! She had modestly gone along as a mere wife. Thus after almost a century she proves that the founders of the oldest and best were right in contending that education for women would not make conceited, haughty wives as their enemies predicted.

Since returning to the states, Mark has accepted a position as special staff writer for the Associated Press with headquarters in Washington, a distinct loss to journalism in Georgia. Willie and the children will join him at the beginning of the year; in the meantime, she is talking to many clubs on European conditions, helping to that better understanding hoped for by the Oberlaender Trust Company and making the feeling of her impending loss to Macon all the greater.

1921

Class Secretary: Mrs. Eugene Torrance (Mary Fagan), 532 E. 37th St., Savannah, Ga.

Marion (Padrick) Woodard of Tifton has a son, Jack, Jr., born March 12.

Nell (Eley) Collier has moved to La-Grange from Roanoke, Ala., with her husband and daughter, Elizabeth, eight years old.

Janie Lee (Gardner) Ware has moved to Macon where her husband Dr. Ford Ware is practicing his specialty in ears, eyes, and throat diseases with Dr. Pennington.

Sympathy is extended to Kate (Mikel) Gillen in the death of her father, M. J. Mikel of Macon in August, after an illness of about six months.

Margaret (Smith) Weaver has a daughter, Octavia, born in June.

Clementine (Strozier) Jessup is teaching the fourth grade in the Eastman school.

Bruce (Cleckler) Flanders, capable president of the large and busy Macon club of alumnae, had a delightful vacation trip to Boston, Mass., where her husband attended the International Rotary Convention. Katherine (Cleckler) Arnold, '18, with her daughter Beth, aged fourteen, joined them in N. Y., as did Zillah Halstead, former member of the conservatory faculty, and now teaching piano in the Eastman School of Music in Rochester.

1923

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. A. Patterson (Ruth Sears), Cuthbert, Ga.

Marjorie Baker's mother and father celebrated the golden wedding in July of this year.

Eloise Bacon, teaching in Georgia and Florida for five years, and serving as welfare worker in Colquitt County one year, has taken up a quite new and unique activity.

She is writing songs! One of her songs, "Say What You Please," is appearing in a folio of popular songs gotten out by the Charles Harrison Music Publishers of Chicago.

Genevieve (Broome) Jones was a councillor at Interlaken Camp at Croydon, N. H., in charge of nature study, rifle-shooting, and story telling. Her daughter Frances was the honor girl of the Junior Girls. After camp, Mr. Jones joined them for a camping trip, and in the early fall, they had as their guest at their home in Bogota, N. J., Mrs. Broome, mother of Genevieve and Christine.

Winifred Rogers is still teaching school in Columbia, S. C.

Sympathy is extended to Viola (Stanford) Strozier in the death of her six-year-old daughter, Mary Frances, in May.

Sympathy is extended to Martha (Farrar) Nicholson and to Clara Bond (Farrar) Wilson, '27, in the death of their mother in December, 1932. Mrs. Farrar leaves two other children also, Mrs. T. D. Evans of Savannah and W. E. Farrar, Jr., of Macon, husband of Salome (Anderson) Farrar, '28.

Ellen Hinton won her Master's degree at Emory University this summer.

Mildred (McCrory) Mitchell, her husband, and their two-year-old daughter, Marianna, spent the summer in New London, Conn. with Mr. Mitchell's parents. They visited in Washington, D. C. for several days en route.

Sympathy is extended to Elizabeth (Thwaite) Jones in the death of her husband, Frank R. Jones, who was accidentally burned to death in their home October 23. Elizabeth has two sons, Frank R. Jr., five years old, and Edward Sidney Jones, about one month old.

Catherine Craig writes from Lakeland, Fla.:

"I feel that I must let you know a little gossip about the old girls of Wesleyan who are now in Lakeland.

"Mary Lee (Oliphant) Brown (A.B. '09) has been ill for about two years. She is improving now. For two years she taught English in our junior high school where she made a notable record and is yet considered the best English teacher we have had in this section of work. Her son, Tom, Jr., is principal of the junior high school in Haines City, Florida, Jean, her older daughter, has just graduated from high school. It was my pleasure to have her in Vergil.

Vivian (Souder) King, (Ex '13) a cousin by marriage of the late Mrs. M. M. Burks, has a lovely daughter, Josephine, at Tallahassee. She was pledged Kappa Delta. She is outstanding in every respect. Studying at Southern for the last two years, she has entered the junior class.

Madeline (Wade) Cox (Ex '09) has two children in senior high school. Her husband, Carl S. Cox, was made supervising principal of the Lakeland Public Schools this year. Prior to this, he was dean of Southern College.

Sara Jenkins (A.B. '26) is teaching English and Journalism in senior high school. Her parents moved to Orlando, Florida, when the last conference met.

Mildred Stevens (Ex '29) is now president of the Wesleyan Club here. She teaches in the primary grades.

Madelyn Buckles (Ex '15) is at the University of Oklahoma where her father is in business. She has been pledged Tri Delta.

Vida Barnett, (Ex '32) a former student at Wesleyan who later entered Yale and made all A's, is still suffering severely from hay fever and asthma. Her attacks have been worse this summer.

Jessie (Thrasher) Hunter, (Ex '80), who sent a daughter to Wesleyan is president of the Woman's Missionary Society of College Heights Church.

Friends of Mary Kate (Williams) Ricker-son (Ex '22) sympathize with her in the loss of her father during the summer months.

Winifred Gilmore (Ex '21) lives down the street from me and we have a good "Bull session" once in a while. She and her Aunt Lallie Melton have a kindergarten called "The Bluebird", which has a splendid standing.

Nell (Collier) Space (Ex '97) who teaches in the primary grades of Lakeland won a trip to the World's Fair this summer, through a newspaper contest.

Elizabeth (Reed) Mack (Ex '12) has two children in college. Ted is a senior in the law school of the University of Florida. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega, and the honorary law fraternity whose name I do not recall. Betty is a freshman at Tallahassee where she was pledged Kappa Delta. Betty was in my Latin classes for three years. She is an ideal girl. Last year she was editor of the school annual and was voted the most popular, the best all 'round and the most outstanding girl in high school.

Friends of Lillian (White) Hines (Ex '86) sympathize with her in the loss of her husband this summer.

Helen (Higdon) Glover has two children in high school this year.

I am in my tenth year at Lakeland High School, teaching Latin. I like it better each year. I am hoping I shall be able to have the place fifty years hence.

Elizabeth Malone writes from Arkansas: "I am back at the same old job, teaching Latin and being teacher-librarian in the Jonesboro Junior High School.

"Sarah Branch, Ouida Johnson, and Mary Miller, had a lovely trip this summer. They toured the west and Mary wrote me that they saw ten national parks, twenty-one states, eleven capitals, went to Mexico, and Canada. They traveled eleven thousand miles and had seventeen flat tires! Of course they visited the Century of Progress too. While there they met Ruby (Montgomery) Harris and her husband who were having a second honeymoon. Ruby left her four year old daughter, Ruby Jean, with an aunt.

"Sarah Branch teaches in Washington, D. C., and Mary Miller, in Jacksonville.

"Eileen Surrency attended summer school at Duke and visited the Century of Progress in August."

1925

Class Secretary: Celeste Copelan, Greensboro, Ga.

A most unique birth announcement came to the Alumnae office recently. It is a little newspaper, five by seven inches, called "The Burghard Squall," and announces the arrival on August 20 of little Jacqueline Burghard, daughter of Lois (Baker) Burghard. The baby's father is a newspaper editor in Daytona Beach, Fla. Set in columns exactly like a real newspaper, the "Burghard Squall" has headlines, editorial page, society page, etc., all about the Burghards, including Patricia, Jacqueline's 3½-year-old-sister. The baby's grandmother, Mrs. August Burghard of Macon, sent the little newspaper.

Lulawill (Brown) Ellis has a daughter, Joan Fleming Ellis, born August 7. Lulawill's little son, Irving Ellis Jr. is about four years old.

Vo Hammie (Pharr) Carr writes: "I tried to hatch up a Wesleyan house-party in September composed of Maryella Camp, Katharine Harman and Martha (DeLay) Kennedy and Clyde Kennedy, Jr. But Maryella was the only one who could come. She came in a brand-new car and stayed a day or two. Katharine came later and stayed a day or two and told about her trip to the Fair in Chicago. Martha Kennedy also went to the Fair.

"Josephine (Evans) Miller, A.B. '22, has a son, born in June. Frances Callahan, A. B. '25, is head of the history department in Columbus, Ga. Hazel Macon, A.B. '32 is teaching math in Moultrie this year.

"While I was in Daytona Beach, Fla., in September staying two weeks with Mitta (Pharr) Fields, B.M. '18, my sister (you knew she had a red-headed boy almost two years old?) we went to lunch with Nannie Kate (Shields) West, A.B. '19. She has a lovely little girl about six months old. We also saw Frances (Holmes) Towson, A.B. '16. She and her husband and three children, two boys and a girl, were there for two weeks. Harriett (Evans) Southwell, A.B. '25, is not teaching this year."

"Vo" sent a picture of her children, J. M., Jr., Robert, and Mitta. Mitta, the baby, looks exactly like Vo!

Frances (Peabody) McKay is president of the Quill Club of Macon for the coming year. Her little daughters, Mary and Anne, are getting to be big girls now; Mary started to school this fall.

Louise (Stubbs) Lowry has a daughter, Mary Louise, born in June.

1926

Class Secretary: Mrs. A. E. McIntosh (Dorothy Thomas), 15776 Turner Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Frances (Cater) Snow has a new little daughter, named Frances Cater Snow.

Bessie (Darsey) Stanley has three adorable little girls, the oldest in the first grade at school this year. Bessie's husband works for the state highway department.

Mamie Harmon has an editorial position with Funk and Wagnalls in N. Y.

Freda Kaplan (she is spelling it "Freda" now) was at home on a delightful visit in January, Freda is editor of the Oakland Outlook, a suburban newspaper in Chicago, and enjoys her work immensely.

Elizabeth Peck, who has been for five months on the staff of Camp Edith Macy, the national training camp for Girl Scout leaders at Briarcliff Manor, New York, had a delightful vacation in the fall. She visited friends and relatives at various places between New York and Florida, her home.

Anna Weaver is now principal of Lanier Junior High School for Girls in Macon, succeeding Miss Margaret McEvoy, who resigned after 52 years in the county school system.

1927

Class Secretary: Mrs. H. B. Hoover (Lucretia Jones), 53 Lexington Hall, Concord Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

Sympathy is extended to Evelyn (Aven) Thompson of New Orleans, La., in the death of her father, Roy E. Aven of Macon in January, 1933.

Virginia (Childs) Bootle, her husband and little son, Gus, Jr., visited Mr Bootle's parents in Charleston, S. C. in September.

Elizabeth (Coates) James of St. Petersburg received the M.A. degree from Mercer University this summer. She spent the summer in Macon with her parents, and has returned to St. Petersburg where she teaches English in the high school in addition to keeping house for a new husband.

Sympathy is extended to Clara (Kinney) Stribling in the death of her husband, W. L. ("Young") Stribling after a motorcycle accident in Macon in October. "Strib" was greatly beloved in Macon as a young man of fine character and winning personality as well as a boxer of international reputation. Clara has a little son, Guerry Boone Stribling, who was two weeks old at the time of the accident. He is the namesake of Clara's grandfather who was at one time president of Wesleyan. She has also two other children, W. L. III, and Mary Virginia.

Minnie Lee Rankin is teaching at Taylors, South Carolina.

Mildred (McLain) Launius writes:

"Marie New has been in New York City for the past five years, but I've managed to get a glimpse of her on all of her trips South. She is prettier than ever. On her last trip down I met her in Atlanta for a couple of days and we surely tried to make up for the time we'd lost. We talked constantly. She is the luckiest, and evidently the most capable girl I ever saw, for she has managed to get some of the best jobs to be had.

"I imagine Frances (Davant) Walter is still in Tampa, for the last time I heard from her (nearly a year ago) she and Guy had just bought a new home.

"Isn't this unusual? Frances (Horner) Middlebrooks and I were suite-mates one year at Wesleyan, and we married on the same day and year, thirty minutes apart, and married college fraternity brothers who both lived here in Monroe. They live now in Thomaston.

"Dorothy Hester's home is here, too. She is in Memphis, now, though, working in a library. She's crazy about living there, but I think she has an interest other than her work.

"Julia Adelaide (McClatchey) Cook from Wrightsville comes up here occasionally with her little boy to visit her aunt.

"Elizabeth Dent I can't tell you much about except that she married Frank Ferguson and they live in an apartment near the University in Soochow, China. They have a rather new little baby.

"Last summer I visited Helen (McNatt) Bradley, A.B. '25, in her lovely brand-new home in Claxton. There I saw Martha Brown, Ex '28, who teaches in Thomson, and Frances (Grice) Adams, Ex '28, who lives in Claxton.

"I see Sherrie Rowe, '29, Launa Shepherd, '29, and Dorothy Spearman, A.B. '28, real often. They all live in Social Circle and teach there or nearby. Sherrie has a music class, Launa is in Jersey and Dorothy in Eatonton.

"Mary (Rives) Carter, '26, live in Gainesville, Ga., now and I hear she has a most handsome little boy named Rives Carter.

"Annie Mae Powell, '24, is teaching English in Newnan High School.

"Now about some girls who live or teach here in Monroe. One of my sisters-in-law,

Ruth (Radford) Launius, '14, has two future Wesleyan prospects, Gene, who is a sophomore in high school, and Martha, just starting to kindergarten. There is a cute little boy in between them. By the way, Gene had a visitor this summer. She was Marion Little from Louisville. Her mother, Marion (Sconyers) Little, '13, and Ruth were roommates at Wesleyan.

"Rosalie Radford, A.B. '24, and Caroline, A.B. '33, are teaching school, Rosalie in Covington and Caroline in Jersey, Ga.

"Louise (Wiley) Lewis, Ex '31, married a "cousin-in-law" of mine. Her sister, Mary Nell, A.B. '28, married Walton Strozier, who teaches at Oxford Academy, where they and their baby girl live.

"Essie Mae Cobb, A.B. '29, and Emmie Mae Jay, '25, are teaching for their fourth year here.

"Annie (Graham) Reeves, Ex '22, who married Paul Felker, lives here too. They have two fine little boys, Paul, 7, and Richard, 4.

"Sara (Roane) Kelly, Ex '27, hasn't changed her address, and neither has Beulah (Pirkle) Aycock, '09. They both married Monroe men. Mrs. Aycock has a son who is a junior in high school, and a little girl ten years old.

"Mamie (Summerour) Williamson, Ex '15, her husband, and their three little girls, live in Rockmart, Ga.

"Mary Lucy Nowell, A.B. '23, married Bob Reaves, and lives in Manning, S. C., but she and her little six-year-old daughter visit here every summer.

"Mrs. James Sheats is our oldest 'Wesleyan girl' here. She was Lila Williams of Macon, and was at Wesleyan in 1879-81.

"Marion (Robison) Cox, A.B. 20, lives here too. She has a little boy, Walter. Her husband's sisters, Helen and Lilian, spend most of the time here every summer. Helen, '19, her husband, Howell Ingram, and their little six-year-old daughter, Mary Elizabeth, live in New York City. Howell teaches at Columbia University and they have an apartment near there. Lilian, '17, married Jim Giradeau, and they live in Atlanta. They, too, have one little girl.

"I forgot to tell you anything about myself. I've loved living here in Monroe these three years I've been married. My husband is a Georgia man, civil engineer, but he has a hardware store here now. (It would be pots and pans instead of ready-to-wear!")"
